

EATING AT A RESTAURANT

Enter the restaurant. It might be noisy, so you may want to bring headphones

Wait for your table.

You will be walked to your table and you take a seat.

Look at the menu and see what you would like to eat and drink. Tell the server when they come take your order.

Wait for your drink and for your meal. You can do an activity to pass the time.

When your food arrives, it is time to eat!

There might be condiments and utensils on the table. You can use what you need and ask your friends or family for help

After you are finished, the server will take your plate. If you have leftover food they can wrap it up for you.

The check will be paid, it is time to go. You did great!
